Harcourt Herald: Early Submission Deadline

Hope you are having a great summer so far! Because of Church office staff and our family holidays the submission date for the September issue has to be earlier than normal so that it can be printed in time. Please submit your articles, poems, book reviews, committee updates etc. by AUGUST 14 to: theherald@harcourtuc.ca The old e-mail address does not work, so please be sure to use the above. Look forward to starting the new year out with a bang!

Sep 29 to Oct 1: Harcourt Inter-generational Retreat 2017

Registration forms available on the greeting area table.

Where? Loyola House on the grounds of the Ignatius Jesuit Centre property

What? we will be all together, young and not so young, in small groups and/or alone to pray, worship, learn, create, and, of course, eat. There will be structured times with teaching, reading, dramatization, imagery and lots of unstructured times as well to explore the grounds and intensify personal relationship with God.

Who? YOU! Anyone interested in deepening their spiritual life, learning new ways of being community, exploring new ways of being a congregation.

Ellis Chapel is celebrating its 156th anniversary on August 13.

The non-denominational service begins at 2:30pm with a congregational hymn sing, followed by guest speaker and well-known story-teller, Rev Ann Estill, and special music by Kevin Kenalty. Refreshments in the chapel garden following the service. All are welcome. More information: www.ellischapel.ca
