

“Just One Thing” Eco-Fair

Harcourt Memorial United Church

September 8, 2019

Eco-Fair Booths

The Frugal Fashionista Arlene Fuhr-Davis
Looking stylish while saving the environment

Beeswax Wrap Jean Jackson & Mary Lou Funston
Discover an alternative to kitchen plastic wrap & foil

Produce Bags Anne Parsons of Go-Go Grannies
Re-usable bags for grocery store produce

Reducing Consumer Impact on the Environment – Learning to Make Do
Melissa, Andy, Hania & Lucia Kwiatkowski
The K family share their experience with trying to go for a year without buying anything new

Solar Panels on your House Frank and Janet Webster
What's involved when you decide to install solar panels on the roof of your family's home? The Websters share their story.

Simply, Plants for Dinner Debbie & Chuck Daniels
Tips & recipes for vegetarian eating

The Stone Store Kaleisha and Nicole
Natural foods store committed to organic, eco-friendly and ethical sourcing

Guelph Repair Café / Homemade Personal Care Products
Rosalind Slater and Jill Gill
Find out about “repair café” days when volunteers get together to mend clothing and repair small appliances and electronics. Learn how to make your own eco-friendly care products.

Transition Guelph Steve Tedesco
TG seeks to build local resilience and sustainability – it oversees the Community Orchard Project and TreeMobile, to name just two of their collaborative projects.

Wellington Water Watchers Annie and Phil Terhaar
Dedicated to the protection, restoration and conservation of drinking water in Guelph and Wellington County

City of Guelph
Pick up a steel straw kit for back-to-school time